

Asher Honey Oak Console Table

1155.00 €

Meet the statement piece your hallway's been waiting for. The Asher console pairs solid white oak with a warm honey finish that glows under any light. Hand-built with old-school mortise-and-tenon joints, it's sturdy enough for keys, coffee-table books, or your heaviest décor. A brass-finished zinc base adds a quiet flash of metal for modern contrast. Arrives ready for action—just style and admire.
