2625.00 €

Command your workday from a desk that means business. Solid white oak, wire-brushed and hand-stained, delivers heirloom strength with a timeworn soul. Brass pulls glide open four quiet drawers, while a hidden channel keeps cables invisible and your surface serene. Designed to stand alone or anchor the full Atlas modular suite, this piece sits flush against the wall, turning even tight corners into executive territory. Build the office you deserve—one impeccable component at a time.
