

Sorrento Recycled Outdoor Pillow Cover

46.50 €

Elevate your outdoor oasis with the Sorrento pillow cover, a unique piece woven from 100% recycled polyester yarn. This innovative process transforms post-consumer plastic into a beautifully soft and durable fabric, giving new life to beverage bottles and household containers. Each cover features a soft wash finish, chic fringe detailing on all sides, and a convenient zip closure. Due to its handwoven nature, every piece boasts subtle variations in color saturation and tonality, ensuring your decor is truly one-of-a-kind. Crafted for all-weather durability and rated for colorfastness, it's perfect for both indoor and outdoor use. For the complete look, pair it with our 23" x 23" Water-Repellent Outdoor Pillow Insert (sold separately). Made in India.
